U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Under the Patent Act of 1952, no person is entitled to a patent for an invention unless the applicant is the inventor or joint inventor, or the assignee of the inventor or joint inventor.

REISSUE APPLICATION DECLARATION BY THE ASSIGNEE Docket Number (Optional) 2771.001

At least one error upon which reissue is based is described as follows:
Original patent claim 15 failed to particularly point out and distinctly claim the invention insofar as original claim 10 did not provide adequate antecedent basis for "said cylindrical sequencing" and for "said backing cylinder."

(Attach new declaration if needed.)

All errors corrected in this reissue application arose without any deceptive intention on the part of the applicant.

 WARNING:
 Patent applicants are cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a credit or debit card authorization form PTO-2039 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, patent applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Patent applicants are advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request is completed with 37 CFR 1.215(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2039 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.
 I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like are made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. 1001, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application, any patent issuing thereon, or any patent to which this application is directed.
